The Opera House has 54 performances between June 22 - September 15, of which Access Theatre Tickets are available for.

More tickets are available for our Preview night, as they are intended for special invited guests and tickets are not sold to the public. These nights are perfect for families and small groups. All Access Theatre participants will still need to apply for ticket for those nights, by filling out the attached form and either emailing or snail mailing the form to Tina Leak. We look forward to meeting you and seeing you at the theatre!

RAGTIME, June 22, 2023 - July 2, 2023

Directed by Fracaswell Hyman

is a compelling epic capturing the American experience at the turn of the 20th century. Tracking three diverse families in pursuit of the American dream in the volatile "melting pot" of turn-of-the-century New York, Ragtime confronts the dialectic contradictions inherent in American reality: experiences of wealth and poverty, freedom and prejudice, hope and despair. Over the course of the show, the worlds of a wealthy white couple, a Jewish immigrant father and his motherless daughter, and an African American ragtime musician intertwine. Together, they discover the surprising interconnections of the human heart, the limitations of justice and the unsettling consequences when dreams are permanently deferred.

Disneys THE LITTLE MERMAID, August 17 - August 27, 2023

Directed by Sarah Rogers

is a beautiful love story for the ages. Even though Ariel seemingly had the perfect life "Under the Sea" with everything handed to her on a silver seashell platter, she deeply desires to be "Part of Your World" and to fearlessly explore "Human Stuff" beyond her home in the ocean like forks, life, love and of course legs. Meanwhile, King Triton, Ariel's father, is not having it - something quite relatable to most parents. Oh to be one of the Daughters of Triton! But Ariel's trio of friends (Flounder, Sebastian & Scuttle) are keen to help a girl out ... of the ocean, that is!

Man of La Mancha, August 17, 2023 - August 27, 2023

Directed by Ray Kennedy

Cast into prison by the Spanish Inquisition because he foreclosed on a church in tax default, author and tax collector Cervantes, his man Sancho, and fellow prisoners perform a play-within-a-play as a mock trial while awaiting the hearing. In the prison play, an elderly Alonso Quijana self-knight's his alter-ego and names him Don Quixote. The mad knight then proceeds to better himself and right all the wrongs of the world, albeit in an often comedic "unlikely hero" fashion. If you've ever found yourself rooting for the underdog who's fighting the establishment (who hasn't?), you'll find plenty to embrace in this heart-warming story that encourages us to see past the insanity and imagine the world as it COULD be.

The Prom, September 7, 2023 - September 17, 2023

Directed by Carson Hobbs

Local girl, Emma Nolan, wants to take her girlfriend to prom but the PTA are on a mission to keep the high school dance on the straight and narrow. Determined to transform lives and put themselves back in the limelight, Broadway celebrities muscle in to change the town and give Emma the prom she deserves. It is joyous, funny, and sweet production that appeals to several generations reminding us there's a place for everyone beneath the Mylar balloons at a high school dance, even in conservative Indiana.

All Performances are on the main stage at TThalian Hall Center for the Performing Arts - 310 Chestnut Street (at 3rd street)
